

4th Annual Lake Marburg Fishing Symposium

Saturday, February 15th, 2014

(Snow Date - Saturday, February 22nd, 2014)

Dub's Church Annex – Located on Dubs Church Rd., ¼ mile east of PA Rt. 216
(1958 Dubs Church Rd. Hanover, PA 17331)

Instructional & Educational Seminars conducted by local and regional experts. Learn the proven techniques for fishing Lake Marburg and surrounding waters.

Doors open at 8:00 am, seminars start at 9:00 am.

Seminar times and topics:

9:00 - 9:45 "Lake Marburg Habit Project 2014" - Ben Page (PF&BC)

10:00 - 10:45 "The Catfish Queen" - Jaime Hughes

11:00 - 11:30 "Bowfin" - Dave Keller (PF&BC)

11:30 - 12:00 Lunch Break

12:00 - 12:45 "Protecting Red-Bellied Turtles in Lake Marburg" - Dr. Jessica Nolan, Associate Professor of Biology, York College, York, Pennsylvania

1:00 - 1:45 "Fishing Codorus Creek / Habitat Improvement/ Angling Techniques" – Tom Fenize, Terry O'Bradavic & John Menges - Codorus Creek Chapter Trout Unlimited

2:00 – 3:00 "Care of Catch – For Release or Consumption"

Each seminar will include a presentation of information with a question/ answer period at the conclusion of each seminar. Presenters will also be available after each session to answer individual questions in a small group format.

Lake Marburg's local author, Lee Snyder, will have a book signing and selling of his recently published book, Monsters of the Abyss.

Free admission!

Food items will be available for purchase from Dub's Church Kitchen.